Introducing: Magic on the Homewood Campus!
GREETINGS TO THE HOPKINS FAMILY,

THE WINTER SEASON IN BALTIMORE CAN BE BRUTAL, BUT THE BEAUTY OF CHANGE IN WEATHER IS UNDENIABLY BEAUTIFUL ACROSS OUR CAMPUS. THE SNOW COVERED TREES, SNOW DAYS FILLED WITH STUDENTS SLEDDING DOWN THE BEACH, AND THE POSSIBILITIES OF SHARING FELLOWSHIP IN WARM SPACES PROVIDE US ON THE REASONS WE ARE A FAMILY. A COMMUNITY OF PEOPLE BROUGHT TOGETHER TO LEARN AND EXPLORE IN THE CLASSROOM AND OUTSIDE THE WALLS OF TRADITIONAL LEARNING. IT IS DURING THE WINTER MONTHS THAT WE CAN REFLECT ON HUMANITY, GIVING BACK, COMMUNICATING, AND WISHING FOR WARMER WEATHER. WE TAKE THESE MONTHS TO PONDER OUR LIVES AND CONNECT WITH EACH OTHER BECAUSE WE ARE THE HOPKINS COMMUNITY! THAT’S WHAT WE DO.

SO VENTURE OUT AND EXPLORE WHEN THE WEATHER IS BEARABLE. AND WHEN YOU ARE GIFTED TIME WITH EACH OTHER ON "SNOW DAYS", DON’T LOSE THE OPPORTUNITY FOR COMMUNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

BEST WISHES FOR A GREAT WINTER,

DR. IRENE FERGUSON,
DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS

Who was Reginald F. Lewis?

A Baltimore Native

"In 1965, the Rockefeller Foundation funded a summer school program at Harvard Law School to introduce a select number of black students to legal studies. Reginald lobbied for his acceptance and got in. He made such an impression that Lewis was invited to attend Harvard Law School that fall — the only person in the 148-year history of the school to be admitted before applying. During his third year at Harvard Law, Lewis discovered the direction his career would take as the result of a course on securities law. His senior year thesis on mergers and acquisitions received an honors grade.

“Those of us on the faculty who saw in him then the promise of greatness had no idea of the extraordinary achievements be was to attain.” -Frank Sander, Professor, Harvard Law School

After graduation (HLS ’68), Lewis landed a job practicing corporate law with a prestigious New York law firm. Two years later he—along with a few others—set up Wall Street’s first African American law firm."

Current Exhibition (ends 2/28/15)
"For Whom It Stands": This exhibition chronicles the communities and individuals who pointedly have asked the question: for whom does the flag stand? From pride to protest, the flag of the United States has been used to express the views of the nation's people. Most recently, people of diverse backgrounds have rallied around the slogan that “Black Lives Matter.” In these demonstrations and protests, the U.S. flag has once again emerged as an icon for expressing the anger, turmoil, and even despair. This resurgence of flag-based images challenges the contention that there is “liberty and justice for all.”

A CHARITY EVENT

"Every year the CCS e-board tries to improve and make a memorable experience for all of our attendees and contestants, and this year lived up to our expectations!"
- Amanda Garcia

The Caribbean Cultural Society Pageant

"This was my first CCS pageant, and my experience was sublime. The other contestants' passions for their islands led to many interesting discussions during rehearsals. Being able to learn dances from four different cultures, all of which have a strong presence within the Caribbean islands, was a first for me. I was elated to be crowned the winner of the pageant. The CCS pageant gave me the opportunity to represent my heritage and bring some of Puerto Rico to all of those in attendance. In particular, my maternal grandmother practically raised me throughout my childhood; my first thought was of her. I was truly honored to be selected winner out of such a strong group of contestants, any of whom could have been named Face of the Caribbean."
- Paul Markakis, Mr. Puerto Rico

All proceeds were sent to l'Ecole Village Lucina in Haiti

"Ecole Village Lucina (EVL) was founded in 1998 by Maryse Desgranges Desgrottes; and is located in Chabanne, a district of Petit Goave. EVL was named after Lucina Seme Desgranges, the late mother of Dr. Gerard Desgranges; She was an honorable citizen to her hometown and country, who believed that every child has the right to an education, health, and a happy home. Known as the “poto mitan” to everyone in her family, and in her community, she lived through example: always willing and ready to help those in need, always ready to lend an ear, and unselfishly giving. She is greatly missed, but her memory and vision lives on through Ecole Village Lucina."

Magic is a very interdisciplinary art, so we try to cover as many of its aspects as possible. JHU Magic behaves almost like two separate student groups, one for performance and one for research and development of ideas and concepts. I got exposed to magic at a young age by my father and my brother, but it wasn't until high school that I joined the Society of American Magicians and was able to learn more and perform for larger audiences.

The whole experience has been very rewarding. I think it is due to the openness of magicians with each other. You can reach out to any magician, either professional or not, and they will answer back and help you out with anything. If I were to pick, I would say that it would be helping found JHU Magic. I think our student group has a lot to offer to the magic community, and it's kind of like a way of saying thank you to all of those who have helped me along the way.
Have a wonderful Spring Semester!
